Institute of Public Assistance (Providoria)
Mini-Lottery Rules, 1981

In exercise of the powers conferred by article 15 of the Legislative Diploma No. 1984, dated 14-4-1960, the Administrator of Goa, Daman and Diu is pleased to frame the following rules: —

1. Short title and commencement. — (i) These rules may be called the IPA (Providoria) Mini-Lottery Rules 1981.

(ii) They shall come into force with effect from the date of their publication in the Official Gazette.

2. Definitions. — Unless there is something repugnant in the subject or context, the terms used in these rules are defined as:

(i) "Chairman" means the Chairman of the Council of IPA (Providoria);

(ii) "Council" means the Council of IPA (Providoria);

(iii) "Director" means the Director of IPA (Providoria);

(iv) "Government" means the Government of Goa, Daman and Diu;

(v) "Institute" means the Institute of Public Assistance (Providoria).

3. Issue of tickets. — (i) The Director will fix from time to time, the number of tickets to be issued in case of each draw and in the number of series which they are to be issued.

(ii) The tickets of Mini-Lottery shall be issued in the denomination of 0.50 paise (fifty paise) per ticket. The Council will be competent to change the value of the ticket from time to time.

4. Appointment of Agents. — (i) Any individual or firm desiring to be appointed as Lottery Agent should apply to the Director in Form IPA ML-1.

(ii) The Director, after satisfying himself of the bonafide and financial stability of the individual or the firm desiring to act as Agent, shall select such individuals or firms to act as agents, and allot a quota of Lottery Tickets taking into account the financial capacity, area to be covered etc., by the applicant, etc. The Director shall have power to increase or reduce the quota allotted to each agent.

(iii) The individuals or firms selected to be agents shall execute an agreement bond in Form IPA ML-2. The individuals or firms thus selected shall have to pay in cash security deposit of five percent of the total value of the tickets allotted. While computing the total value of the tickets one issue shall be considered.

(iv) The Director shall appoint agents by issuing an appointment certificate in Form IPA ML-3.

(v) The Agent should produce the appointment certificate as and when asked for by the Director or by his representative.

(vi) The Director shall be empowered to terminate the agency if in his opinion it is found that the Agent is not fulfilling the conditions stipulated in the agreement, and included in these rules.

5. Sale of Lottery Tickets. — (i) The Lottery Tickets shall normally be made available to the public through the authorised Agents specifically appointed under Rule 4 (iv) of these rules.

(ii) The tickets shall be sold at the Treasury of the Institute seven days in advance.

(iii) Each agent shall lift the quota of tickets allotted to him in not more than two instalments. The last instalment shall be lifted not later than two days before the date of the draw.

(iv) If for any reason, any agent fails to purchase the quota of tickets allotted in full before the time limit fixed under Sub-Rule (iii) above, the Director shall be free to distribute the tickets to any other Agent, institution or the public. If for any reason any part of such tickets remain unsold, he shall be liable to pay to the Institute the entire value of such tickets. If such instances are repeated, he shall be liable for termination of his agency and the security deposit shall be forfeited to the Institute. The Director shall exercise his discretionary powers in deserving cases.

(v) The Director may fix a quota of Lottery Tickets allotted to the Agents to be distributed to the handicapped and other disabled persons.

6. Mode of Payment for Sale of Lotteries. — (i) The Lottery Tickets shall be sold against payment in Cash or Demand Draft in favour of the Director on any Scheduled Bank or Co-operative Banks. A special facility of effecting payment by Cheque shall be given to those agents, who, in the opinion of the Director enjoy outstanding financial reputation.

(ii) In case any cheque is returned by the Banks for want of funds, the Agent shall be liable to pay the bank service charges and a fine of one percent of the value of the cheques.

7. Draws. — (i) The Draws of the Lotteries will be held in the Lottery Hall at about 3.00 p.m. on the date specified on the ticket. In case of change of date specified in the ticket, the same will be given wide publicity in the local newspapers.

(ii) The lottery draws will be held in public and in the presence of a panel constituted of the following members:

1. The Director — Chairman.
2. A. A. O. — Vice-Chairman.
3. Mamlatdar of Tiswadi or his representative — Member.
4. Police Inspector (Town) or his representative — Member.
5. Under Secretary of the Administrative Department in the Secretariat or his representative — Member.
6. Accountant of the Institute — Member-Secretary.

In the absence of the Chairman, the Vice-Chairman or any other Officer designated by the Vice-Chairman shall act as Chairman of the panel. The quorum of the panel will consist of not less than half of the members of the panel.

(iii) The procedure for the draw shall be as follows: —

There will be a machine containing six drums in a row. The drums will bear the following identification labels:

I	II	III	IV	V	VI
(Series)	(Ten thousand)	(Thousand)	(Hundred)	(Tens)	(Units)

The first drum will contain the balls engraved with the prize amount and the series. The second drum will have the ball with Number one only and the other drums will contain the balls bearing digits 0 to 9. The draw will commence with the operation of all these drums simultaneously. The authority for supervising the draw rings the bell, the drums will be rotated for 10 to 15 seconds so that the balls inside the drum will get shuffled. The authority for supervising the draw rings the bell again, the drums will be halted. On halting the drums, the lever will be pulled up so that one ball from each drum will go down simultaneously. The series from the drum No. 1 and the numbers from drum No. 2 to 6 will be arranged on the board from left to right in the same sequence that will constitute the prize winning number for particular amount and series. This procedure will continue till all the prizes as shown in the plan are taken out. The draw for the first prize will be held first. The draw for all other prizes will be held subsequently. The termination prize for the last one digit, last two digits and the last three digits will be based on the number of the first prize.

8. Prizes. — (i) The prize structure for draws will be approved by the Government from time to time.

(ii) The Value of the first prize shall be printed on every ticket. The value of other prizes will be given on the list of prizes which will be issued by the Institute after the draw.

(iii) No tickets shall be eligible for more than one prize in a draw. In the event of more than one prize being won by a ticket, the ticket holder shall be entitled to the highest prize won by the ticket.

(iv) The tickets if any remaining unsold with the Provedoria will also be entitled for prizes and/or endings. Such tickets shall be listed and sealed before the start of the draw. Prizes or endings if any won by the unsold tickets will form part of the revenue of the Institute.

(v) Prizes will be paid at the Treasury of the Institute against the production of prize winning tickets. The prizes shall be claimed in the form of IPA ML-5. In case of the first prize, the winner should make an application supported by the prize winning ticket and a passport size photo. The prize amount can also be claimed through any Scheduled Bank or Co-operative Bank.

(vi) A ticket which is torn or mutilated, will not ordinarily be entitled for any prize. The Director shall however, use his discretion in certain cases based on merits.

(vii) The prize shall be claimed within two months from the date of the draw. The Director shall use his discretionary powers and extend this period by one month, if in his opinion, he finds that some circumstances beyond control prevented the claimant from claiming the prizes within one month. The prizes shall be paid after two months.

(viii) In case any defective or duplicate numbered lottery ticket is sold by the Institute, the same shall be entitled for prize only after carrying out necessary investigations. In such cases, the Institute will issue an acknowledgement to the person claiming the prize. Prizes shall be paid on the production of the acknowledgement.

9. Commission to Agents. — (i) The Lottery Agents appointed under Rule (iv) of these rules shall be entitled for commission of seventeen percent of the value of tickets purchased. The Council will determine and if necessary revise the quantum of commission from time to time. The commission will be paid at the time of sale of the Lottery tickets. It will be sufficient if the Agent deducts the quantum of commission from the cost of the tickets and pays the difference at the Treasury of the Institute. The Agent should, however, at the time of every purchase, issue a receipt (stamped if the amount exceeds Rupees twenty) for the amount of commission.

(ii) Bank Charges, fines or any other dues of the Institute of Public Assistance (Provedoria) if any can be recovered from and out of the amount of the commission payable.

10. Bonus to Agents. — (i) The Agent who had purchased from the Treasury of the Institute the Lottery ticket won the first prize, shall be paid a bonus to the extent of one percent of the value of the first prize. The bonus shall be claimed by the Agent in Form IPA ML-4.

(ii) The Director shall be competent to revise the quantum of bonus from time to time.

11. Ban on Sale of Lottery Tickets of other States: — The Government may ban sale of Lotteries from other States in the Union Territory of Goa, Daman and Diu, if in its opinion, the sale of other lotteries from other States is prejudicial to the sale of lotteries issued by the Institute.

12. Supervision and Savings. — (i) If any question arises as regards to the interpretation of these rules or any other matter not expressly provided in these rules, the matter shall be referred to the Government and the decision of the Government shall be final and binding on all concerned.

By order and in the name of the Administrator of Goa, Daman and Diu.
